MISSIONARY WORK.

The ministers of the presbytery are appointed to do each two weeks' mission ary service during the year at churches and mission points designated by the presbytery. The following reported presbytery. The following reported having performed the work assigned them: W. A. Campbell, W. S. Laey, J. W. Rosebro, J. P. Gammon, J. C. Stewart, E. B. McCluer, C. N. Van Houten, R. A. Robinson, J. R. Rennie, J. I. Vance, T. P. Epes, J. K. Hall, F. L. Kurtz, A. P. Saunders, W. C. Lindsay, J. S. Smith, and E. T. Wellford. Others gave reasons for failure which were ac cepted as satisfactory.

The reading of the narratives of the state of religion sent up by nearly all of the fifty churches of the presbytery occupied a large part of the forenoon sesion, and they exhibited general progress and activity in the churches. The reports from the Church of the Covenant (Richmond), Fredericksburg, Holmes, Newport News, First and Second churches of Norfolk, and the First church of Richmond were especially encouraging, showing large a ditions to these churches and marked general improvement. In the report of the Colby-Memorial church of Norfolk the fact was mentioned that a petition of their church to the court secured the suppression of the sale of liquor in their

George P. Haw, Esq., elder of the Samuel Davies church, of Hanover, presented a call for the services of Rev. H. Brown, a member of Abingdon Pres bytery, and the church was authorized to prosecute the call before that presby-

An adjourned meeting was appointed to be held in the First church, Richmond, the last Tuesday of May at 4 P. M. with a view to receiving Mr. Brown and taking steps for his installation. PASTORAL SERVICES.

A call for the pastoral services of Mr. J. Spencer Smith, a licentiate of the presbytery, was presented from the Byrd church of Goochland and placed in his hands and accepted by him. It was ordered that he be examined with a Rev. H. C. Moore, upon certificate from Onachita Presbytery, and after the usual examination was received and enrolled. He will be called to Suffolk

Rev. L. B. Turnbull, on behalf of the Mizpah and Fairfield churches, of Henrico, presented calls for the pastoral services of Mr. W. McC. White, a student at the seminary under the care of Winchester Presbytery. It is understood that Mr. White will accept this charge and remove to this presbytery if his own presbytery permits the transfer.

AN ACADEMY. The Rev. W. C. Lindsay, of Northampton county, presented a memorial from citizens of Cape Charles with reference to the establishment of an academy at that place. Their communication was referred to the committee appointed last fall to consider a like proposal from citizens of Blackstone, and the committee was enlarged by the addition of Rev. F. B. McCluer, Rev. W. C. Lindsay, Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D. D., Rev. J. Y. Fair, D. D., and Elder W. H.

The examination of candidates, begun in the morning, was interrupted by the hour of recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Rev. Dr. W. T. Richardson, chairman of the permanent Committee on Education, reported answers to certain inquiries of the assembly's Secretary of Education. There are now thirteen candidates under the charge of the presbytery-probably the largest number in its history. Dr. Richardson was excused trom the chairmanship of this commit-tee, but continued as a member. Rev. young man named Powers after Powers C. N. Van Houten was appointed chair-had fired three shots at him.

Dr. Rosebro introduced to the usual examination was taken under the care of the presbytery. The session of the First church, Norfolk, having asked the General Assembly to appoint its meeting in 1894 in that church, the presbytery heartily endorsed the invitation. After a very busy session, in which much business had been transacted, the presbytery adjourned at 6:30 till to-morrow. Dr. Fair, of Richmond, preschol at width. preached at night.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., April 12.-Another pretty wedding took place at 6 o'clock this afternoon in the Methodist church, when Miss Mittie Neighbors, daughter of Mr. W. H. Neighbors, was married to Mr. Charles D. Harvey, of Pulaski. The chancel and choir-stand were elaborately decorated in white and green, and under the central arch of green and white blossoms hung a silver Cupid's bow and arrow. To the familiar but ever-inspiring strains of the wedding march, beautifully rendered by Mr. W. G. St. Clair, the bridal party entered in the following order: Messrs. Robert bors and Frank Beuchler, then the little gate-openers, dressed in blue gauze, Lelia Moyers and Berta Neighbors in the branch office bors in the branch office bors. groom on the arm of his best man, Mr. George Kefanoer, and the bride on the arm of her brother. Old Corner-Stone Found.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA. April 12 .- Thirty-odd years ago a movement was set on foot here to erect a monument to the late Whit P. Tunstall, the first president, and known as the father of the Richmond and Danville railroad, on the hill east of the city now known as Donill Hill. The corner-stone was laid by Roman Eagle Lodge of Masons, and a number of citizens contributed to the fund. The amount was placed in the Old Virginia Bank, but the war coming on the pro ject was abandoned and the funds col lected were supposed to have perished with the bank. A new street has been cut through the hill, and to-day workmen came across the corner-stone and it had to be moved out of the way. All the articles which had been placed in the stone had been removed.

Serious Charges Against Four County Officials --- An Oyster Inspector's Password.

RECOMMENDS REMOVALS.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] NEWPORT NEWS, April 12.- The grand the presbytery as a candidate for the ministry Mr. Frank Robins, a member of Tabb-Street church, Petersburg. He was commended by the session of his church, and after which certain county officers were distributed by the session of his church, and after which certain county officers were distributed by the session of his church, and after which certain county officers were distributed by the session of his church, and after the session of his church, and the session of his c commendations of a very sensational

After submitting a long list of indictments the grand jurors recommend that Henry F. Jones, oyster inspector; J. B. Marable, John Sinclair, and J. E. Ford, Justices of the Peace, be at once removed from office for gross malfea-

OYSTER-LAW VIOLATIONS.

Jones is charged with encouraging violations of the cyster law. Witnesses before the grand jury testified that he had given out a password to the cystermen which enabled them to take cystermen which enabled them to take cyster. men which enabled them to take dysters from the natural rock during the prohibitory period. The password, the witnesses stated, was paid for by those who possessed it. One man said that he asked the inspector if he was sure it would be all right to go ahead and take oysters from the natural beds out of season, and that the inspector had replied that it would be perfectly safe to do so because he had seen Judge Peek and fixed the matter up. Another witness stated that the inspector had summoned a number of men to load a schooner with oysters from the forbidden grounds and that they were told that in doing so they would be protected. These statements are contained in the written testimony taken by the grand jury, which was seen by the Disparch reporter late this eve-ning. Much other damaging testimony was submitted against Mr. Jones.

FULLY AS SERIOUS. The charges against Justices Marable, Ford, and Sinclair are fully as serious. A number of witnesses declared that persons arrested for trifling offences had been taken before a justice, who, instead of investigating the complaints filed against the prisoner by the police-man making the arrest, simply collected the costs in the case and dismissed the alleged offender. No official record of alleged offender. No official record of these cases, it is stated, was kept by the justice, and instead of turning the money into the county he either put it in his pocket or spent it for liquor. Most of the victims were negroes who live in that section of town known as Rocketts. The grand jury recommends the immediate removal of the three men

CONVENTION CALLED.

The County Executive Committee met in the court-house to-day, and after a session which lasted until nearly 6 o'clock decided to call a county conven-tion on Saturday, April 22d, for the pur-pose of selecting candidates for the May election. District conventions will be held on Friday, April 21st. Some Democrais wanted a primary.

A VERY SUDDEN DEATH. Good-Templars' Entertainment. Asylum Officers.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispate Petersburg, Va., April 12,-Mr. Wil-Wellford was also added to this committee. Three eiders were also added to this committee for this meeting—namely. Gervas Storrs, William Cumming, and Miss Laura Allen, of this city, were married here this afternoon.

HORSE-THIEF ARRESTED.

He Stole the Animal from a Lynchburg Liveryman.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) STAUNTON, VA., April 12.-John Glass alias James Glass was arrested here to-day by Officer Charles E. Gregory, charged with the theft of a horse and spent several days here in civilian's clothes on the lookout for his man. Officers elsewhere were in hot pursuit and the culprit left his booty in Fluvanna county and came on here to his old stamping-ground.

The accused seems to be a horse fancier, as he has already served a term in the penitentiary for horse-stealing committed in Rockbridge county, and was again in the penitentiary a second time for another offence. DANVILLE, VA., April 12.-Miss Katic D. Graham, of this city, and Mr. John F. Trotter, of Lynchburg, were married at Main-Street Methodist church to-day, Rev. W. E. Edwards performing the ceremony. The chancel of the church was handsomely decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The ushers were Messrs. Greenhow Maury, Frank Tal-bott, A. O. Evans, and F. Clarke.

The marriage, while a beautiful one, was very plain and simple. The bride was dressed in a gray travelling suit and the groom in a deep suit of black. Im-mediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Trotter were driven to the depot, where they took the train for Lynchburg, their future home.

A white swelling soon appeared just below the knee joint, and extended from the knee to the ankle. At the same time he was taken with an attack of fever, which was broken up, but the leg became very badly swollen, causing him great suffering, and the muscles so contracted that his leg was drawn up at right angles. He was unable to walk, could not even bear to be handled, and I thought him a bear to be handled, and I thought him a Confirmed Cripple. "After a time we had the swelling lanced, midway between the knee and the ankle, and it would discharge over a pint angle, and it would discharge over a pint of pus at times. I decided to take him to Cincinnati to have the leg operated upon, expecting he would lose it. But he had' become so poor and weak that I thought I would let him gather some strength, if passible, and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began giving it to him. This medicine soon woke up his appetite,

Hood's SATES Cures and he ate more heartily than for a long and be ate more heartily than for a long time. At this time the sore was discharging freely, and soon pieces of bone began to come out. I have in my office one piece of bone 3 i-4 inches long by nearly haif an inch broad, which came out of the sore. We continued giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. The discharge from the sore decreased, the swelling went down, the leg straightened out, and soon he had perfect use of his leg. He now runs everywhere, as lively as any boy, and apparently
